4. Ordinance Amendment- Limitation on the Number of Retail Liquor Licenses

Last month, the Committee directed the City Attorney to draft an ordinance amending Chapter 5 (Alcoholic Beverages), Article II (Licenses), Section 5-16 (Classes of Licenses; License Fees; License Restrictions; Limitation on the Number of Licenses), Subsection (2) (Retail Liquor) and Subsection (3) (Retail Beer and Wine).

The attached includes the following proposed changes:

- Beer License and Beer/Wine License:
 - Eliminates cap language on retail beer and retail beer and wine licenses.
- Liquor License:
 - Changes liquor license to include sale of beer and wine;
 - Increases price to $3,125.00 for liquor license; and
 - Changes to census language.
- Transfer Ordinance:
 - Added language requiring information about transfer of license consideration.
- Suspension and/or Revocation:
 - Amended language from twenty-four months to twelve months for activating license.

If the changes are approved, the ordinance may be forwarded to City Council for approval.
